Subject - Regarding organization of special training camps under the National Service Scheme.

Under the National Service Scheme, Waru village has been adopted for three years. on 14/01/19, during the period of 20/01/2019, the volunteers of the National Service Scheme successfully organised high impact and excellent programs and activities through the residential camp. 50 volunteers of BSF-111 participated for the first year in the National Service Scheme. They promise solar energy plantation, cleanliness. Valuable contributions were made in the activities of Rog Nidan Camp. Lokjagar. De-addiction, street dramas through street dramas, saving water and saving electricity, women empowerment - created public awareness. Along with this, they tried to solve the water problem of the village by constructing a 20-metre-long dam. Volunteers organised Rangoli, Essay Competition, various games etc. for the students and encouraged the students by distributing prizes. Sitaram Chavan provided guidance on Seditya and Zero Budget Farming through these platforms. All the above activities and works were done by our National Service Yojana volunteers in an excellent and spontaneous manner. However, you are requested that next year also this type of Shram Sanskar Shiber should be organised in the village of Waru.
